

THE 11TH ANNUAL
CHICAGO ASIAN AMERICAN
SHOWCASE 2006

March 31–April 13, 2006

The 11th Annual Chicago Asian American Showcase

March 31–April 13, 2006

Presented by the Foundation for Asian American Independent Media (FAAIM)

And the Gene Siskel Film Center of the School of the Art Institute

Over the course of two weeks, come see the Chicago Premieres of over 12 feature-length films—most coming from other festivals like Sundance, Tribeca and SXSW. In addition the amazing documentaries and short film programs are not to be miss. Opening night will feature Eric Byler's (Charlotte Sometimes) latest, Americanese and closing is Georgia Lee's first feature—Red Doors. Romantic comedy. Historical documentary. Science fiction. We got it all and more, as the Showcase presents not only the best in Asian American filmmaking, but also music, visual art and literature. Mark your calendars... we'll see you there!

And don't forget to joins us for a special performance, highlighting the work of local filmmaker and musician—Tatsu Aoki.

Check www.faaim.org for the complete Showcase schedule and film listing.

All film programs are at the Gene Siskel Film Center, 164 N. State Street (at Randolph). www.siskelfilmcenter.org.

Tickets are available at the Film Center box office (312) 846-2600, or in advance through www.ticketmaster.com.
